11/7/13 - The "New FCC" with Chairman Wheeler has announced its first open meeting. Your first look at the New Commission will be on November 14th. The first item relates to transfer of control of broadcast properties, including the foreign ownership factor.

11/5/13 - MALWARE ALERT!: you might think this is just another scam to be ignored - the message from a rather nasty bit of new malware you should know about: CyberLocker.

This has been called "ransomware".

if it gets on your system, it will encrypt your key files, then demand a ransom for the will just delete the key and leave you with all your files killed. Of course, even after some have paid, the key is not sent. Worse, it will move around a LAN and destroy anything connected.

11/5/13 - 11.45 - The FCC finally has issued more than a mere Public Notice regarding the use of EAS tones (and sound alike) in ads, promos, and programming. Bottom line: it is illegal. An NAL with a rather large fine - \$25k has been assessed to Turner Broadcast for violating this rule. Turner claims it 'wasn't exactly' EAS tones

Meanwhile, the FCC has allowed Bowling Green, KY station WNKY\(DT\) to escape an NAL with a consent decree. While WNKY did admit using EAS tones, and it appears they did take action to stop the violation, but it was in a local commercial. Therefore, to close the books, the station agreed to $39k as a "voluntary contribution" to reduce the US Debt

10/29/13 - 73.3526 - A Forfeiture Order for \$8k (reduced from $10k) was issued to KUKY in Welton, AZ for not having the Public Information File available. The Commission did accept an excuse that the employee did not fully understand the request due to a language issue and did not direct the Field Agent to the local library, where the PIF was located.

10/29/13 - 73.3526 - Failure to provide a Public File for a Field Agent (See 7/29/11, below) netted an NAL for KFOX, Torrance, CA. In issuing the Forfeiture Order to HK Media, the Commission did reduce the amount from $10k to $8k because the station had a good history of compliance.

10/29/13 - 73.1125\(a\) - Another Forfeiture Order in an older case was issued to WQOR, Olyphant, PA had its $10,000 forfeiture reduced to $1.5k for the violation of Main Studio rule (See 12/3/10, below) due to inability to pay. However, the Commission did point out that repeated violations would not get similar reductions.

And for some spare time reading !!!

The FCC released its Notice of Proposed Rulemaking \(NPRM\) for the Revitalization of AM Service. The comment period is two months.
